NEW SOUTH CONSTRUCTION SUPPLY NOW DISTRIBUTING TREMRON PAVERS AND RETAINING WALL BLOCKS

March 13, 2009 (W. Columbia, SC) New South Construction Supply, LLC announced today that it has started distributing the Tremron line of concrete pavers, retaining walls, natural stone, and green products. Tremron Group headquarters is in Jacksonville and they have three manufacturing facilities in Florida. They also have manufacturing facilities in New Jersey and Canada. Tremron's plants are among the most modern in the industry and produce high volumes of top quality products.

Tremron produces their pavers and retaining wall blocks in up to 50 colors and you can match the color of retaining wall blocks and pavers if you wish. They also import slate and travertine marble so you can get pavers, retaining wall blocks, marble, and slate, all on the same truck.

Commenting on this transaction, Jim Sobeck, CEO of New South Construction Supply said, "We are extremely excited to be distributing Tremron products. When we decided to take on a line of pavers and retaining wall blocks we researched the entire industry and, in our opinion, Tremron is the clear leader". Sobeck added, "We already serve landscape and hardscape contractors and the addition of the Tremron line will round out our product offering to these types of contractors.

Hugh Caron, President of Tremron Group stated, "Forming a partnership with New South Construction Supply is a great fit for us. We think it will be a great success." Caron went on to say, "Their eight locations in North and South Carolina are strategically located to be able to cover all markets in the Carolinas, a market which is a big part of our future growth plans."
